COME ON YOU BRICKS!

WELCOME!

Hadley v Cheshunt
Herts Senior Cup Round 2
Wednesday 28th November 2018
7.30pm, Brickfield Lane

Good evening and welcome to this evening's Herts Senior Cup Round 2 game against Cheshunt FC. We hope their players, officials and supporters have an enjoyable short stay with us and have a safe journey home later. We also extend a very warm welcome to our three match officials, Graham Swanton (Ref), Chimango Gondwe (Ass Ref) + Andrew McCree (Ass Ref).

We face a tough challenge tonight, with the visit of 3rd placed Bostik League South Central side Cheshunt FC. This will be our second game against higher league opposition, after our 2-1 victory v Ware in the last round. Cheshunt beat Kings Langley in the last round.

In our last game, after an incredible run of 10 straight league wins, we were beaten 1-0 at home against a solid Colney Heath team. Despite this defeat, we are still in an excellent 3rd position.

I would like to wish good luck to both sides this evening and hope all of you enjoy the game and get behind the Bricks!

FACING US TODAY– CHESHUNT FC

The modern club was established in July 1946 at a public meeting in the Co-op Hall in Waltham Cross. A group of local businessmen decided to form a new club for the town, and local junior team Crossbrook Sports were used as the basis for the new club, retaining their amber and black kit.[2] They immediately applied and were accepted into the London League, playing in Division One for the 1946–47 season. They finished runners-up (recording their biggest-ever win, 11–0 at Royal Ordnance Factory, in the process) and won the League Cup and Herts Charity Shield.

Cheshunt won Division One in 1947–48 but remained in the same division. They won it again in 1948–49,[5] earning promotion to the Premier Division, and reached the Herts Senior Cup final for the first time. The following season they won the Premier Division, beating Tilbury on the last day of the season to clinch the title from them. They also reached the third round of the Amateur Cup following a run that included defeating holders Bromley in front of a record crowd of 5,000.[2]

During the 1950s the club changed leagues several times; they were members of the Delphian League between 1951–52 and 1954–55, rejoined the London League in 1955 and then left to become founder members of the Aetolian League in 1959. In 1957–58 they reached the FA Cup fourth qualifying round for the first time. Cheshunt joined the Spartan League for the 1962–63 season and won the title at the first attempt. The following season they won the Spartan League Cup, before joining Division Two of the Athenian League in 1964. They finished runners-up in their second season under the management of Terry Medwin, the former Welsh international, and were promoted to Division One, also winning the Herts Charity Shield. The Division One title was won in 1967–68, beating Wembley in a head-to-head championship decider, to earn promotion to the Premier Division.

They won the Mithras Cup in 1969–70, the London Charity Cup in 1973–74, the Athenian League Cup and East Anglian Cup in 1974–75 and the Athenian League Cup again in 1975–76. They also reached four Herts Senior Cup finals, two Mithras Cup finals as well as solitary East Anglian Cup and Herts Charity Cup finals during the 1970s. Between 1975 and 1995, the club had yellow and blue as its club colours, reverting to amber and black afterwards.[6]

After several failed attempts, Cheshunt joined Division Two of the Isthmian League in 1977. In 1981–82 they finished second, and were promoted to Division One, but were relegated two seasons later. At the start of the 1986–87 season a mass walkout of Committee, management and players – due to budget cuts and demands to see a first team made up of former youth team players – led to Cheshunt finishing bottom of Division Two and being relegated into the Spartan League.

In 1992–93 Cheshunt won the Spartan League Cup and finished third in the league, earning promotion back to Division Three of the Isthmian League. They finished second in their first season and were promoted to Division Two, but were relegated at the end of the 1997–98 season. However, they made an immediate return to Division Two after finishing third. In 2002–03 they won the division, and were promoted to Division One. A third-place finish the following year saw them promoted to the Premier Division. At the end of the season the club finished in the relegation zone, but avoided being demoted after Hornchurch went bust. Instead, the club were transferred to the Southern League Premier Division. In 2007–08 they were relegated, and were placed in Division One North of the Isthmian League. In 2016–17 the club won the Herts Charity Cup for the third time.

FACING US TODAY– CHESHUNT FC

Cheshunt FC will be hoping for a return to form on Wednesday evening as they travel to Hadley FC in the Hertfordshire Senior Challenge Cup.

The Ambers have won just one of their last six games in all competitions, which was a 2-0 victory over Bracknell Town in the league. Draws have come against Chalfont St Peter (1-1) and Chipstead (3-3), whilst defeats have come at the hands of Hanwell Town (3-1), Whitstable Town (4-3) and most recently Egham Town (2-1).

Despite that run of form Cheshunt are still third in the Bostik League South Central Division, although they trail leaders Marlow by five points.

League Roundup

Saturday 24th November

PREMIER DIVISION

Biggleswade FC returned to the top of the table with a resounding 4-1 home win over Arlesey Town whilst morning leaders Tring Athletic suffered their second defeat in a week when surprisingly going down 0-2 at home to lowly Wembley. At the other end of the table Stotfold lost again, this time by the odd goal in three at London Tigers. Cockfosters picked up three useful points to ease their relegation fears with a 3-1 home success over North Greenford United FC. Hadley's ten match winning run in the league ended when a solitary goal from Colney Heath's Daniel Fitzgerald earned the visitors maximum points. Biggleswade United maintained their charge for promotion with a 4-0 success at London Colney and ensured it was an expensive day for their former committee man Gareth Davies now back at Colney who paid for a steak and chips meal for all those in attendance. Potton United were the division's biggest winners with a 5-0 win over visiting Crawley Green. Elsewhere Baldock Town and Oxhey Jets shared the points following a 1-1 draw and Leighton Town were solitary goal winners at Leverstock Green.
